SLS EVENT SERIES

FALL 2018 SCHEDULE

SLS HOSTED EVENTS

SLS Information Sessions- What is Serve-Learn-Sustain
Tuesday, September 4th, 11:00am - 11:45am; Thursday, September 6th, 11:00am - 11:45am; Thursday, September 13th, 11:00am - 11:45am; Thursday, September 13th, 5:00pm - 7:00pm
These info sessions will offer you the low-down on SLS: why we exist, what we do, and why you will want to get involved!

Liam's Legacy Symposium: Energy, Justice, and Community Health
Three Sessions: 10:45am - 11:45am; 12:00pm - 1:00pm (Lunch); 1:00pm - 2:30pm
The Fall 2018 Liam's Legacy Symposium examines the theme of "energy justice," the challenge of how to provide affordable, safe and reliable energy.

Sustainability in Cross-Cultural Perspective
Thursday, October 11th, 11:00am - 12:00pm
Join students and faculty directors from SLS' affiliated study abroad programs as they reflect on what they learned about sustainability and community and how this can help us think in new ways about the U.S.

SLS BUZZ Course: 4-Day Skills Workshop
4 sessions between October 17th and November 28th
Participate in a Social Enterprise boot camp run by CCI and open to the public – so you will learn alongside aspiring entrepreneurs from across Atlanta.

SLS Think Tank
Thursday, October 25th, 10:45am - 11:45am
SLS Think Tank brings GT faculty, students, and staff together with Community Partners to present and receive feedback on community projects, research opportunities, and collaborations.

Assessment Group Teaching Workshop: Backwards Course Design and Scholarship of Teaching and Learning
Monday, November 12th, 9:00am - 12:00pm; 1:00pm - 4:00pm
We are offering two exciting workshops that will give you tools that you can immediately use in your classroom!

What is Community Health? Student Ambassadors Reflect on the Semester
Thursday, November 15th, 11:00am - 11:45am
Come hear SLS Community Health instructors and a Student Panel of ambassadors share their major takeaways from their semester taking SLS

Teaching Toolkit Workshop: Climate Change, Health, and Equity
Thursday, November 29th, 10:45am - 11:45am
This workshop will feature teaching tools that address climate science, health, and equity. We will learn from and with PhD Candidate Kevin Lanza (SCaRP).

Fall 2018 SLS Student Showcase
Tuesday, December 4th, 4:00pm - 5:00pm
The SLS Student Showcase will feature projects that engage the SLS theme of creating sustainable communities, especially within our priority issues.

Fall 2018 Faculty-Partner Showcase and Meet n' Greet
Wednesday, December 5th, 11:00am - 1:00pm
This is a great opportunity to learn about the creative course design work of faculty collaborating with community partners, and to make connections with local organizations for your own courses!

PARTNER EVENTS

Health is a Human Right: Race and Place in America Exhibit
ONGOING, Monday - Friday, 9:00am - 5:00pm
This exhibit examines historic challenges of the past 120 years in achieving health equity in the U.S.

RCE Youth Network Back to School Event
Saturday, September 15th, 12:00pm - 4:30pm
Join us for lunch at Ponce City Market, and a free tour of the Beltline, and share your ideas about the future of sustainability.

CDC Exhibit: The Refugee Journey to Well Being
Through October 5th, 9:00am - 5:00pm
An immersive museum experience, The Refugee Journey to Wellbeing provides insight into refugee health and the resettlement process.

Just Energy Summit
Friday, September 21st - Saturday, September 22nd, 8:00am - 5:00pm
This Summit will weave community, policy, business and municipal voices into collective action towards a more equitable, inclusive, clean energy future.

Grady's Community Benefit Program
Tuesday, September 25th, 7:30am - 9:00am
This presentation discusses how trends in health care are driving hospitals to work more closely with their communities to improve community health.

Leadership for Social Good Study Abroad Info Session
Tuesday, September 25th, 11:00am - 12:00pm
This program offers students the opportunity to gain insight into global civil society and to learn about sustainable social enterprises in Budapest, Hungary.

Sustainability with a Southern Twang
Tuesday, September 25th, 5:00pm - 6:00pm
This talk explores the successes and failures of the South’s search for environmental permanence.

Study Abroad Fair
Tuesday, October 2nd, 10:00am - 2:00pm
Come learn about nearly 150 international education possibilities offered at Tech and the SLS Global Student Ambassadors Program.

Impact Presents: "The Superpower Within"
Wednesday, October 3rd, 4:30pm - 6:00pm
Come learn about how individuals can create better communities through the power of philanthropy and volunteering.

Global Goals: Local Progress
Wednesday, October 10th, 6:30pm - 9:00pm
Join us to celebrate and launch RCE Greater Atlanta, our new regional sustainability network acknowledged by the United Nations.

Regenerative Design Summit
Friday, October 12th, 9:00am - 4:00pm
The Regenerative Design Summit intends to empower the design community to bring regenerative strategies to the Southeast.

Net Positive Atlanta: Subtropical Solutions
Thursday, October 18th, 8:00am
This highlights stories of pioneering Living Building Challenge project teams as they pursue the world’s most rigorous green building standard.

28th Annual AIDS Walk
Sunday, October 21st, 1:00pm - 3:00pm
Now in its 28th year, AIDS Walk Atlanta & 5K Run is a fun 3.2-mile run/walk through the historic Piedmont Park & Midtown Atlanta neighborhoods.